Civil District Court lawsuit filed by Concrete Busters against River Birch terms Trout Point Lodge Ltd. of Nova Scotia a "shell company"

Sha

Trout Point Lodge Owners Vaughn Perret, Danny Abel and Charles Leary

They did folks. In fact Concrete Busters amended complaint filed Wednesday against The River Birch Landfill et al unifies several themes we've covered here on Slabbed through time. But alas those nasty Goatherders and I have an outstanding matter in United States Federal District Court in Gulfport before Judge Louis Guirola that my lawyer, Bobby Truitt has me barred from commenting upon. But that does not mean that we can't let Concrete Busters tell part of that story as I invite everyone to consider the implications for quarter 4 sales for the good folks over at Carmex. Let's start with this snippet from the beginning of the suit:

Upon information and belief, additional co-conspirators included numerous shell corporations and limited liability companies owned and/or controlled by the Defendants and/or their co-conspirators, including:

| Cerro Coyote SA

Of course the good folks at Concrete Busters listed a few more too:

- s) Katz & Katz, LLC;
- t) Kempt Wilderness Lodge Services;
- u) Lagniappe Industries, LLC;
- v) N.C. General Contractors, Inc.;
- w) Nova Scotia Enterprises, LLC;

Sha

I'd invite y'all to run those names through the search box on the right sidebar because Slabbed has covered them all. But hark there are even more listed as River Birch Landfill co conspirators including Trout Point Lodge Limited of Nova Scotia a: we also gain insight into how it plays into the alleged criminal enterprise between the landfill and Jefferson Parish officials including Aaron Broussard:

- x) Pasture Land, LLC;
- y) Ring Associates, LLC;
- x) Trout Point Lodge, Ltd.;
- aa) Waterfront Properties, Inc.;
- ab) Westside Construction Services, Inc.;
- ac) Willow Incorporated; and
- ad) Zydeco Holdings, LLC.

Sha

101.

The Defendants and various co-conspirators, including those listed above, have, in various combinations, conspired together, acted in concert and/or as alter egos, agents, tools or instrumentalities of each other, and, such that, in various combinations, some have constituted single business enterprises as they have shared:

- (a) identity or substantial identity of ownership;
- (b) common directors or officers;
- (c) unified administrative control;
- (d) similar or supplementary business functions;
- (e) salaries and other expenses or losses,
- (f) common employees;
- (g) common offices;
- (h) centralized accounting; and/or
- (i) finances; or
- (j) one or some have financed another or others; or
- (k) some have been inadequately capitalized; or
- (l) one or some have caused incorporation of one or others; or
- (m) one or some have paid another or others; or
- (n) one or some have received no business other than from another or others; or
- (o) one or some have used property of another or others as its own; or

I personally can't wait to see all these issues fully fleshed out as the plaintiff's add a few more characteristics to these shell companies:

- (p) they have not complied with corporate formalities; or
- (q) services have been rendered by the employees of one or some on behalf of another or others;
- (r) there have been undocumented transfers of funds between some;
- (s) there have been unclear allocation of profits and losses between some; and/or
- (t) they have bundled campaign contributions together, and/or acted as a "straw man" for another, to subvert campaign finance laws.

Sha

This sounds serious but there is even more:

175.

Further, beginning in or around 2002, a company named Nova Scotia Enterprises, LLC ("NSE"), was formed. NSE was a holding company for several pieces of vacation rental property located in the Canadian province of Nova Scotia. At various times from 2002 through 2010, there were up to twelve partners in NSE—many of which were Jefferson Parish contractors or prospective contractors. Broussard was also a partner in NSE. However, unlike almost every other partner in and more:

NSE, Broussard was given a large, 42% interest in NSE for a small capital contribution to the company. By contrast, nearly $50,000.00 was contributed by several other NSE partners for the upkeep and maintenance of properties. Significantly, many of the NSE investors who supplied the vast majority of the funds obtained a much smaller ownership interest than Broussard in NSE. Most importantly and not coincidentally, during Broussard's tenure, many of the NSE partners, through their various corporations, received contracts with, and work in, Jefferson Parish, worth millions of dollars, at the same time they were funding NSE and Broussard's corporate interest in it. Finally, Broussard sought, at the conclusion of his tenure as Parish President, to sell his ownership share in NSE—which was purchased for very little—for nearly $200,000.00, an extraordinary return on the minimal investment supplied by Broussard. Upon information and belief, co-conspirators of the Defendants were NSE partners.

Sha

How does Charles Leary, Vaughn Perret and Daniel "Danny" Abel fit into this allege criminal enterprise? Perhaps by acting as Broussard's straw men including engaging in libel tourism filing multiple SLAPP suits to silence constitutionally protected discussion using a foreign jurisdiction with defamation laws that are subject to abuse:

189.

Co-conspirators, associates and/or agents of Defendants prosecuted SLAPP lawsuits against the Times-Picayune, Fox 8 News, Anne Marie Vandenweghe, and bloggers, in foreign countries that lack the same constitutional protection of free speech as guaranteed by the laws of the State Louisiana and the United States of America, in an effort to silence investigation and to conceal the acts of the Defendants and their co-conspirators, committing libel tourism to thwart the protections of, and in contravention of, the First Amendment to United States Constitution, Article I, Section 7 of the Louisiana Constitution, the federal SPEECH Act 28 U.S.C. 4101-4105, the Louisiana Rachel's Law Louisiana Code of Civil Procedure Article 2542, and the Louisiana American Laws for American Courts Act La. R.S. 9:6000. Said lawsuits include the suits: entitled Trout Point Lodge, Ltd, A Nova Scotia Company, Vaughn Perret and Charles Leary v. Doug K. Handshoe and numbered 12-cv-90LG-JMR on the docket of the United States District Court for the Southern District of Mississippi; and, Trout Point Lodge, Ltd, A Nova Scotia Company, Vaughn Perret and Charles Leary v. Louisiana Media Company, LLC, and numbered Yar. No. 328248 on the docket of the Supreme Court of Nova Scotia.

Sha

Now if this sounds like one of Eric Paulsen's dumb criminal stories you couldn't fault the reader for drawing that conclusion.

There is gonna be more folks as I do not think Aaron Broussard has been completely forthright in his squeal-a-thon with the United States Department of Justice, especially the intersection of the "Legal Department at the Super 8 Motel" on Clearview Parkway to Broussard's business enterprise in Costa Rica, Cerro Coyote, SA, which a reasonable person would conclude laundered Broussard's ill gotten gains based upon the written statements of Broussard's business associates, Charles Leary, Vaughn Perret and Daniel "Danny" Abel. I'm within inches of tying the whole sordid affair together.

Finally Slabbed is thinking of taking on a new sponsor since business will certainly be picking up due to an expected demand surge for Carmex in southern Nova Scotia. Reader input on that subject is welcomed and in fact encouraged. 😊 i suppose anything referencing trout point is still toxic over at advance media.

Doug Handshoe

October 5, 2012 at 9:31 am

They ran away from a factual story and hung their reporter out to dry. I suspect this topic will remain forever toxic over at Advance Media and Fox 8. Speaking of Fox 8, their role assisting Charles Leary and Vaughn Perret in invading the privacy of Slabbed internet commenters using a Canadian court has thus far not been fleshed out on the Slabb but it's coming too.

Politics is not the only cesspool going in the City.

Don't worry Doug I'm sure the TP will plagiarize you more sometime in the future. For now the TP feels more comfortable on doing story lines on others doing story lines that's how you fill the void with none or little talent .

The UnTimely-and-Picayune is truly miffed about Doug Handshoe having the temerity and audacity to find news which destroys the reputation of TP's favored thugs, and now seeks to make Doug an "unperson" flung down the memoryhole. The POS Blewboy Broach even this morning was caught in a caper worthy of MinTruth. Even more pathetic is the fact that Blueboy defends the indefensible.

Thank you all. To the extent I can control only what you see here, it is a waste of time to worry with the others. Like I said yesterday I've pretty much cut the cord and to the extent I'm telling a much fuller and rich version of this story I'm more than happy to let the reader decide which coverage is better.

Slabbed will wait for no one.

Let me preface the reason for the link...I was being facetious. "I Will Wait" really means certain individuals at AdvancedMedia/Nola.com wait to see what Slabbed writes first before they write their story without attribution.

Doug, might want to consider taking on Shakeweight as a sponsor instead as they could be in demand during the cold winters where Nova Scotians can't get outdoors for daily workouts

The real question is this:

Has Aaron Broussard stopped his illegal activities Ex. using shell companies to silence bloggers?

If not than I got a real problem with him going to Court for a plea deal.

Doug Handshoe

October 5, 2012 at 7:16 pm

IMHO the real question is whether he has come clean about his financial relationships with Nipun "Nick" Desai, the owner of the Super 8 and land owner (via his strawmen parents) of land at the resort at Trout Point Nova Scotia.

Desai has been under a cocaine distribution charge now for at least 2 years that I can determine yet the case never seems to come to trial. According to on record sources (Mr NAAS) Desai was Hugh Sibley's right hand man, what I would term a "cleaner". Sibley, you may remember, copped a plea to money laundering for a mexican drug cartel charges.

Sha

God bless America we are a great country but how does an East Indian exchange student become a real estate tycoon in a very relative short period of time? I think the answer to that question is with Mr Sibley.

So if I happened to be one of the 1-100 John Doe's does that mean I may get a million dollars in that federal court suit? I dedicate this song to you Doug. I know from other posts it happens to be one of your favorites <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=JXdFTh1yX2c>

Hehehehe, that song was a reader suggestion but your point is well taken. If you've been with us for a while you'll also know I really like behavioral economist Dan Ariely, who I think teaches at Harvard these days. There is a concept in the field which is termed ironically enough, "revenge". It well explains certain irrational behaviors using multidisiplinary techniques that cut across a variety of subject matters.

Once the endorphins start flowing there is just no tellin'. Now this song I like.

Well then I am truly blessed.

Somewhere back there in the 26,000 comments left on Slabbed a nice lady named Sally Bourgeois came on here to defend her daughter, who's name came up in comments.

I traded emails with Sally and later that day spoke with her on the phone. When we ended that conversation she told me I was "fair", which I considered a major compliment because that is what I strive for here.

I'm not a hard man to find, ask Sally.

Visual art, inclusive of both painting and the written word, is always subject to appropriation by a 'WANNABE SPONGE' like Nancy Drew ... anyone who is anyone as it relates to this JP scandal drama is reading Slabbed first anyway !!!

All charter changes should be approved by voters.

The modified charter should address term limits, with no elected position exceeding two terms. And term limits should apply to being elected into a different political position. For the good of Jefferson Parish.
